

4th European Conference on Neutron Scattering, ECNS-2007

25 to 29 June 2007, Lund, Sweden

The ECNS 2007 Conference is the major neutron scattering meeting to be held in 2007. It is held every four years and is expected to attract 450 to 600 delegates. Participants come from all major neutron facilities and from user groups. Delegates are interested in equipment for neutron instrumentation and sample preparation and handling as well as books and journals and a range of other equipment and services.

Exhibition

Companies and organisations that want to display commercial material or advertise products or services are offered the following possibilities:

Exhibition space:

To maximise interaction with delegates this is offered in the area where participants will take coffee and display posters. Space is limited and will be released on a first come/first served basis. A display table (120 x 80 cm²), poster board, chair, single phase electricity and internet access with one full registration will be available for SEK 10 000 as a standard package.

If an additional unit of space is required this may be purchased at the price of SEK 5 000. Additional delegates from exhibitors can register at the normal price of SEK 5 500 (early registration SEK 4 900).

Exhibitors should register via the conference WWW page www.ecns2007.org.

Queries about booking or registration should be sent to asa@konferens.se

Advertisements and Distribution of Leaflets

There are possibilities to place advertisements in the Abstract Book that will be distributed to all delegates. The normal price for an approximate A5 monochrome advertisement (full page in Conference book) from electronic originals is SEK 5 000. Registered exhibitors can place an advertisement for SEK 3 000.

A single leaflet (A4 or A5) can be placed in the Conference bag that will be handed to each delegate for SEK 4 000. Sufficient copies must be provided and delivered by 15 June 2007. Numbers of delegates will be provided at the Registration deadline of 28 May 2007.

Sponsorship

Companies that wish to sponsor special events (meals, drinks reception etc.) or provide branded items that may be of use to delegates (pens, notepads, etc.) are invited to discuss this with the organisers.
